

A statement ends with a period. . A question ends with a question mark. ?

Directions: Write the correct mark in each box.

1. Would you like to help me make an aquarium
2. We can use my brother's big fish tank
3. Will you put this colored sand in the bottom
4. I have three shells to put on the sand
5. Can we use your little toy boat, too
6. Let's go buy some fish for our aquarium
7. Will twelve fish be enough
8. Look, they seem to like their new home
9. How often do we give them fish food
10. Let's tell our friends about our new aquarium

Name _____

Ask or Tell?

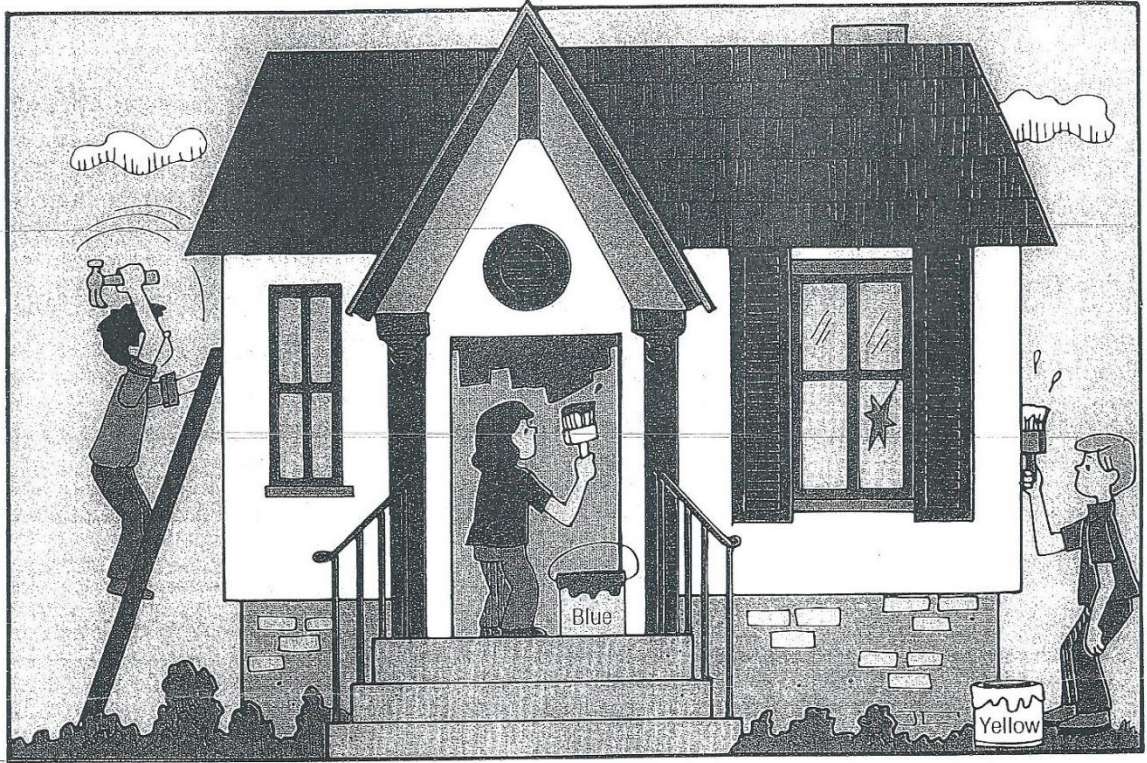

Remember, a question is a sentence that asks something. Questions end with a question mark.

◆ Directions: Write a period at the end of each sentence that tells something and a question mark at the end of each sentence that asks something.

1. Would you like to go shopping
2. We can go to the mall
3. How long can you stay
4. I want to go to the department store
5. Where is the book store
6. I'm getting hungry
7. Would you like pizza or a hot dog
8. Do you want another piece of pizza
9. My sister wants me to buy a CD for her
10. Where is the escalator
11. The pet store is on the second level
12. Are you going to buy new jeans
13. Do you want to buy a toy for your brother
14. It's already three o'clock
15. Do you have to leave now
16. When will the bus arrive
17. Let's wrap the gifts tonight
18. Is there time to play a video game

Directions: Write five questions about the picture.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.